Why is it essential to have a checking account in Brazil?

If you filed your notice of departure from Brazil, if you are going to live abroad for more than 12 months or if you are a foreigner, you may open a Non-Resident Account.

This is the best solution to have a checking account in Brazil and it's entirely legal.

Millions of Brazilians live abroad, but not all of them have a proper checking account. According to the types of your transactions, your traditional account could get cancelled immediately without notice, causing trouble to those who use it.

The good news is that there is an easy, safe, and economical way to have an account in Brazil if you live abroad.

If that's the case, count on us.

Banco Rendimento offers the lowest fees and opens your account fully online without a proxy. Opening an account online is simple and fast and takes place within up to 48 hours.

Advantages of Banco Rendimento's Non-Resident Checking Account

Opening an account takes place online exclusively within up to 48 hours and does not require a proxy.

Our non-resident checking account in Brazil allows you to:

- View your balance and statement using our Internet banking service
